Below are the directions for the essays for each of the awards. You may complete one or both essays, but the essay must be completed for you to be considered for the award(s). If you decide to apply for both awards, do not be afraid to use some of the same information in both essays.

Perkins Award: Phyllis P. Perkins was a school teacher, and she greatly valued learning and educational involvement. In 500 words or less, tell us why you think you are deserving of this award. You may include any curricular or extracurricular activities and accomplishments to support your essay. Be sure your essay is typed.

Munson Award: _____ Munson was a woman who had to fight through the physical limitations of polio. In 750 words or less, tell us why you think you are deserving of this award. Be sure to include any obstacles, physical or otherwise, that you have had to overcome. You may include any curricular or extracurricular activities and accomplishments to support your essay. Be sure your essay is typed.

Please submit this information to the church office by June 1st, 2017.

If selected, you must be present on Graduation Sunday to receive your award.
Graduation Sunday is June 18th at 11:00AM
