Thought for Today

“Do we dare to take seriously this Christmas the familiar words “Fear Not” and allow ourselves, like the actors in the first Christmas story, to trade our fear for fearlessness? Do we have the courage to make ourselves available for God’s unexpected and always surprising purposes in our world? “
-Dr. Shirley A. Mullen

Lord’s Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven. Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Scripture Reading

Luke 1:1-14 (NIV) (pp. 1040-41)

Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, just as they were handed down to us by those who from the first were eyewitnesses and servants of the word. With this in mind, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I too decided to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught. In the time of Herod king of Judea there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah; his wife Elizabeth was also a descendant of Aaron. Both of them were righteous in the sight of God, observing all the Lord’s commands and decrees blamelessly. But they were childless because Elizabeth was not able to conceive, and they were both very old. Once when Zechariah’s division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. And when the time for the burning of incense came, all the assembled worshipers were praying outside. Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear. But the angel said to him: “Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to call him John. He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of his birth.

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

New Preaching Series:

What is GOD CALLING you to in 2018?

Within the Bible there is this big idea that God calls all of us to do something. In the Old Testament God called Abraham to start a nation & Moses to lead his people out of slavery. In the New Testament God called a variety of men and women to make a difference for God by stepping out in faith. Starting on the weekend of January 6 & 7 we will begin a six week series of messages on “The Call” looking at God’s call on the life of St. Paul and what it means for us today as people who seek to follow Christ.

New Study

"Religious Literacy: Understanding the 5 Major World Religions"

January 7, 21, 28, Feb 4, and 11 - Room 6, lower level by the gym

Contrary to popular belief, the world is becoming more spiritual/religious. The 5 major world religions continue to grow but do you really know what each religion believes? Many think that all religions have the same basic message but this is not true! Each has its own claim to a divine truth. In this 5-week series, Pastor Alan Rudnick will lead participants through the importance of religious literacy, basic beliefs of world religions, and how each religion addresses living a life of faith. Come with an open and inquisitive mind.
